Parent's Corner

A child's education is shaped by three major partners – Parents, Students, and Teachers.

When these three work together in harmony, support, and cooperation, a child's future becomes bright. The child feels confident, loved, and valued.

At NCCS, we deeply care about the mental and emotional well-being of every child. To ensure this, psychosocial counselors from 'Abbal We' work closely with students and teachers throughout the year. Counseling sessions for parents are also conducted periodically to provide guidance and support.

In addition, two Sundays each month are allocated for Parent-Teacher Meetings. During these sessions, teachers actively connect with parents to discuss the child's progress, development, and overall growth, ensuring responsible guidance and continuous communication.

Our Goal: Turning Parents into Partners

At NCCS, we believe that true success happens when parents and the school work hand in hand. We encourage our parents to commit to three important actions:

1. Regular Attendance, Hygiene and Punctuality
Regular attendance, proper personal hygiene, and punctuality help children develop discipline, responsibility, confidence, and strong learning habits.
2. Support Learning at Home
  - Setting healthy limits at home (screen time and proper sleep routine)
  - Supervising homework (guiding, not doing it for the child)
  - Communicating regularly and spending quality time with your child
3. Respectful Communication with Teachers
Open, respectful dialogue strengthens trust and ensures the best support for every child.
"When school and home move in one direction, results become automatic."

Parents' Testimony

"I am truly happy to see the way my child wakes up every day excited and ready to go to her preschool. She enjoys her time there, looks forward to her tasty lunch and snacks, and spends the day feeling joyful and cared for. The love, attention, and care given by the teachers and caregivers make her feel safe and happy throughout the day."
